COHART

From Discovery to Management All in One Place

Cohart is the art world's operating system, powering the complete discovery-to-management journey in one unified platform.

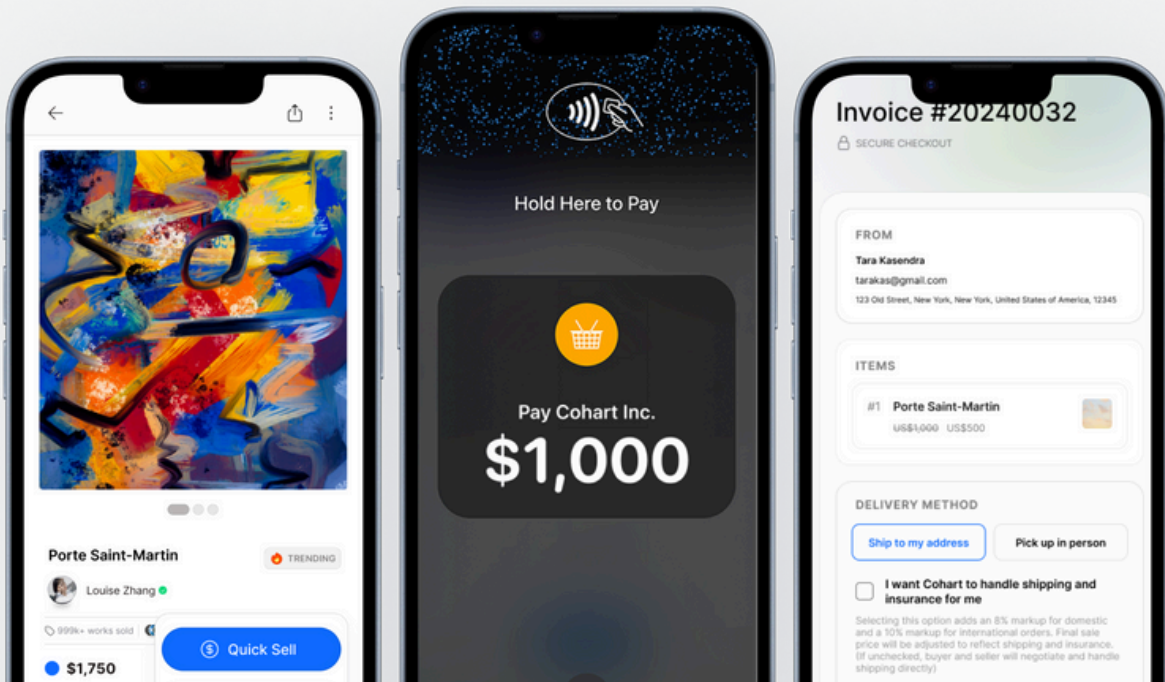

Cohart serves and unifies visual artists, advisors, gallerists, and art collectors.

Backend Tools

- Email marketing
- Sales tax filing
- Tap-to-pay and invoices
- Website builder
- Inventory management

Frontend Features

- AI-powered discovery engine
- Direct message
- Collection management
- AI twins and VR room capabilities (coming soon)

Cohart is the only platform that provides ALL essential features in one unified solution – eliminating the need for multiple expensive subscriptions. We're backed by visionaries like Paris Hilton and the venture capitalists behind StockX.
