New York, NY – September 21, 2021: Redwood Art Group, the nation's leader in exhibitions and event production, media, and marketing for the global art community, announces its highly anticipated four-day showcase. Artexpo New York 2021 relocates to Pier 36 at 299 South Street in Manhattan, from Thursday, October 28 to Sunday, October 31. Exhibitor or trade registration and purchasing of digital show tickets is now open at Artexpo tickets.

The annual fine art destination will host more than 200 innovative exhibiting galleries, art publishers and dealers, and artists from across the globe across 70,000 square feet of uninterrupted convention space, showcasing original work of 1000+ artists that includes prints, paintings, drawings, sculptures, photography, ceramics, giclee, lithographs and glass works, among other contemporary and fine art.

To celebrate its 40+ years of excellence in art, Artexpo New York presents [PERSPECTIVE] as the curatorial theme for 2021 – examining the courage to be different, to present a new vision, and pushing the boundaries of art forward, making us believe, if just for a moment, that anything is possible. Throughout its four historic decades in contemporary and fine art, Artexpo New York has hosted the likes of Andy Warhol, Robert Rauschenberg, Keith Haring and Leroy Neiman; intensifying the discourse on today's industry challenges and magnifying the very best the fine art world has to offer. In addition to visiting the world's largest fine art trade show, more than 35,000 avid art enthusiasts and industry leaders will return to enjoy [SOLO] highlighting established and independent emerging artists. This year's Artexpo New York will also feature its annual lineup of interactive and educational programming covering the industry's most progressive topics and trends.

“With more than 4 decades of history, Artexpo New York has changed how people buy and sell art,” says Eric Smith, President and CEO of Redwood Media Group. “This year, we will undergo our own evolution as the show moves to its new home at Pier 36. We look forward to welcoming the world’s contemporary and fine art industry, as we champion pushing the boundaries and power of art.”

Hosting more than 35,000 avid art enthusiasts, including 5,000+ trade representatives every year, Artexpo New York is the largest international gathering of qualified trade buyers—including gallery owners and managers, art dealers, interior designers, architects, corporate art buyers, and art and framing retailers. Attendees will have an opportunity to browse thousands of innovative new works of art and enjoy education seminars, and other special events. [SOLO] offers established and emerging independent artists the opportunity to showcase their work on an international stage. Over the decades, [SOLO] has become the ultimate venue for independent artists to be discovered—not only by gallery owners and art publishers, but also by collectors and enthusiasts.

As part of the interactive schedule of programming, this year’s Artexpo New York will include Art Labs, featuring specially curated site-specific projects by prominent galleries, art institutions, and art collectives within the show; as well as the Spotlight Program, providing collectors with a focused look at several prominent galleries and artists that will each be creating a site-specific exhibition. This year’s expo also features the Topics & Trends Education Program, which includes four days of complimentary seminars and conference classes offering expert perspectives on subjects ranging from art and the economy, small business management and art marketing to design and decor trends and social media management for artists. The full schedule of programming activity will be announced in March.

Returning exhibitors confirmed for this year’s Artexpo New York include Sammoun Fine Art, Quebec; Gallery Edel, Osaka, Japan; Agora Gallery, New York; World Wide Art/Artavita, Santa Barbara, California; Anna Art Publishing, Ontario, Canada; Studio Jackie, New York; Diego Victoria Fine Art Gallery, Miami, Florida; and Progressive Fine Art, Ontario, Canada. The largest and most recognized exhibitors will be prominently featured within the Artexpo Platinum section at the entrance section of Artexpo New York’s exhibition hall.

Artexpo New York opens to the trade only on Thursday, October 28 from 12 p.m. to 7 p.m. The fair continues for the public and trade on Friday, October 29 through Sunday, October 31, with advance tickets priced at $25 for daily general admission.
