Redwood Art Group, the nation's leader in exhibitions and event production, media, and marketing for the global art community, announces its highly anticipated four-day showcase, Artexpo New York, returning to Pier 36 at 299 South Street in Manhattan, from Thursday, April 3 to Sunday, April 6, 2025.

The annual fine art destination, now in its 48th year, will host more than 200 innovative exhibiting galleries, art publishers and dealers, and artists from across the globe across 70,000 square feet of uninterrupted convention space, showcasing original work of 1000+ artists that includes prints, paintings, drawings, sculptures, photography, ceramics, giclee, lithographs and glass works, among other contemporary and fine art.

Throughout its four historic decades in contemporary and fine art, Artexpo New York has hosted the likes of Andy Warhol, Robert Rauschenberg, Keith Haring and Leroy Neiman; intensifying the discourse on today's industry challenges and magnifying the very best the fine art world has to offer. In addition to visiting the world's largest fine art trade show, more than 15,000 avid art enthusiasts and

ARTEXPO NEW YORK 2025

Now in its 48th year, Artexpo New York brings together the largest international gathering of qualified trade buyers— including gallery owners and managers, art dealers, interior designers, architects, corporate art buyers and art and framing retailers.

The curated expo brings more than 200 of the world's leading publishers, galleries and collectors face to face with hundreds of established and emerging artists from across the globe.

More than 15,000 avid art enthusiasts attend each year to enjoy exciting and original artwork, prints, paintings, drawings, sculpture, photography, ceramics, giclee, lithographs and glass works – all under one roof and within 70,000 square feet of uninterrupted convention space at Pier 36. Running alongside the world's original fine art trade show is [SOLO] highlighting established and independent established and emerging artists. Artexpo New York also features its annual lineup of interactive and educational programming, including Art Labs, Spotlight Program, and the Art Theater Program.

Art for the World, Heart from NY: ArtExpo 2025 Returns with Global Glamour and Timeless Creativity

The Big Apple is brushing up for its most colorful homecoming yet—ArtExpo New York is back! From April 3-6, 2025, Pier 36 in Manhattan will once again transform into the epicenter of global creativity, hosting a dazzling four-day spectacle of fine art, passion, and innovation that's as timeless as a Warhol original and as fresh as a Banksy surprise.

48 Years of Fabulous

Now celebrating its 48th year, ArtExpo New York continues to be the heartbeat of the contemporary and fine art world. Produced by the Redwood Art Group—the visionaries behind the world's leading art exhibitions—this year's event promises to be bigger, bolder, and more brilliant than ever.

"We're pleased to return to Pier 36 for our 48th edition of ArtExpo New York," says Eric Smith, President and CEO of Redwood Art Group. "Artists and galleries from more than 25 countries around the world attend and exhibit at the fair each year, which is a tribute to the international appeal ArtExpo New York has built for nearly five decades."

Where Global Talent Meets NYC Swagger

With over 200 galleries, dealers, and artists from around the world packed into 70,000 square feet of uninterupted artistic bliss, ArtExpo is more than a show—it's an immersion.

"We're pleased to return to Pier 36 for our 48th edition of ArtExpo New York," says Eric Smith, President and CEO of Redwood Art Group. "Artists and galleries from more than 25 countries around the world attend and exhibit at the fair each year, which is a tribute to the international appeal ArtExpo New York has built for nearly five decades." Where Global Talent Meets NYC Swagger With over 200 galleries, dealers, and artists from around the world packed into 70,000 square feet of uninterrupted artistic bliss, ArtExpo is more than a show—it's an immersive celebration. Expect to encounter work from 1,000+ artists spanning every form imaginable: prints, paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics, photography, lithographs, and even glass works that catch the light and hearts alike. From Zurich to Suwanee, Berlin to Santa Barbara, and of course from our very own New York, ArtExpo New York is a true meeting ground for cultures, creatives, and collectors. Notable exhibitors include K-Art Projects USA (Miami), Agora Fine Art (NYC), Van Leeuwen Art (Switzerland), Mecenavie Gallery (Paris), SAB Art Collection (Los Angeles), and Eka Peradze (Germany), to name a few. Observer's April Art Fair Calendar (Updated)

The April art fair calendar in 2025 is packed with cultural events you won't want to miss, including EXPO Chicago and Dallas Art Fair.

By Christa Terry · 03/27/25 8:00am

You're definitely going to want to put Dallas on your art fair calendar this year. Photo: Mei-Chun Jau, courtesy Dallas Art Fair

Spring has long been one of the art world's busiest seasons, packed with a carousel of prestigious fairs, highbrow auctions and closely watched cultural events unfolding across the globe. The March art fair calendar, which culminates with Art Basel Hong Kong, signals the impending kickoff of a busy April art fair calendar that seems to get more and more packed every year. Tired yet? We are! But it's to be expected—these days, when isn't there an art fair happening?

Moschburg's Debut At Artexpo New York: The Launch Of NeoArtEra

April 3, 2025 | By Ilya | ART | Art & Culture, News

Some artists set certain frames for their art to simplify analysis and classification. Yet, artists like Andrew Moschburg push those boundaries to extremes to see what's beyond the standards and conventions. Moschburg is one of the new voices in contemporary street art, ushering in a new age in art and targeting its reset. This year, the artist has unlocked a new milestone in his career by participating in Artexpo New York 2025, a large-scale event with global visibility and impact.

About Moschburg

Born into a family of an American military official, Moschburg used to travel a lot with his family until finally settling in San Antonio, TX. The artist took his first steps in art during his stay in Germany, where he experienced depressive symptoms and found relief in weekend trips to Paris with his mother. Moschburg was determined to pursue a career in art, which led him to Florida, where he received a formal art education and found his artistic voice.

A empresária e escritora paranaense Bettina Muradás marcou presença no cenário literário internacional com o lançamento norte-americano de seu romance de estreia, "Cayman Dossier" (originalmente publicado no Brasil como "A Reportagem"). O evento integra a programação da Artexpo New York, uma das principais feiras de arte contemporânea do mundo, realizada no Pier 36 com vista para o skyline de Manhattan entre quarta (3) e domingo (4).

A obra transporta os leitores para uma trama intricada que começa nas redações de Curitiba e desemboca nos arranha-céus de Nova York. A protagonista Gisele Coelho, uma jornalista investigativa de um grande veículo paranaense, descobre um esquema de corrupção de proporções nacionais durante uma reportagem de rotina. Sua

Paal Anand Wins International Prize at Art Expo New York 2025

CULVER CITY, CA

– April 6, 2025

Share This Article :

Local artist Paal Anand has been honored with the prestigious International Prize for the New Great Masters by the Fondazione Effetto Arte at this year's Art Expo New York. The award ceremony, held at the iconic Sanctuary at Church of the Ascension in Brooklyn on April 4, celebrated Anand's powerful contributions to contemporary visual art and storytelling.

Recognized for his unique lens on Greek mythology and human emotion, Anand's conceptual artworks blend fine art photography with cinematic storytelling. Known for his striking monochromatic compositions, Anand reimagines mythological narratives with raw emotion and depth, revealing the flawed, complex nature of ancient gods.

Formerly a visual effects veteran with credits on "Hellboy," "Pirates of the Caribbean," and Eminem's "Without Me," Anand transitioned to fine art, bringing his technical expertise into emotionally resonant imagery. His recent work includes mixed media pieces featuring rare Palladium and Gold prints that explore the fragile balance between urban infrastructure and the natural world.

Signature pieces like Heracles Hurls Lichas and Alagea and the Erymanthian Boar exemplify his style—muscular, mythic, and deeply human. Each work is an invitation into a world where grandeur meets vulnerability.

"This recognition is truly humbling," said Anand. "It affirms years of exploring stories that connect us across time and culture."

Anand's work has previously earned accolades including the Graphic Gold Photography Awards and spots in renowned exhibitions such as the Arte Laguna Prize. A new collection will be unveiled at an upcoming solo exhibition in Culver City.

Culver City Artist Paal Anand Receives Prestigious International Masters Award during Art Expo New York

Apr 07, 2025, 12:17 AM ET

Italian Fondazione Effetto Arte presented Paal Anand the award at the historic Sanctuary at Church of the Ascension in Brooklyn

CULVER CITY, CA, UNITED STATES, April 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local artist Paal Anand has been awarded the distinguished International Prize for the New Great Masters by the Fondazione Effetto Arte during the Art Expo New York 2025. The prestigious recognition places Anand among the most innovative contemporary artists making significant contributions to the global art scene.

Anand received the award during a ceremony held at the historic Sanctuary at Church of the Ascension in Brooklyn on April 4, coinciding with Art Expo New York 2025, which runs from April 1-7. The annual expo attracts over 50,000 art enthusiasts, collectors, and industry professionals from around the world.

A master of visual storytelling through the lens of Greek mythology, Anand has built an illustrious career spanning over two decades in the commercial visual effects industry. His impressive portfolio includes contributions to celebrated projects such as "Hellboy," "Pirates of the Caribbean," and Eminem's "Without Me" music video. After pioneering work in digital compositing, Anand transitioned into fine art photography, where he channels his technical mastery and artistic vision into exploring narratives that resonate deeply with human experience.

“To be acknowledged by the Fondazione Effetto Arte alongside such remarkable artists is an honor that validates years of artistic exploration and commitment to my vision.” — Paal Anand

Anand's award-winning Conceptual artwork focuses on the intricate stories and mythology, reimagining these stories in their raw, unvarnished form. His photographic series delves into the flawed, nuanced nature of the gods, presenting them as complex beings rather than idealized figures. The artist employs stark contrasts of light and shadow, drawing

ART EXPO NEW YORK: STILL SURPRISING ME, YEAR AFTER YEAR

by Gabriela for GLW Magazine

There are certain events I return to every year, not out of habit—but because they never fail to surprise, move, and completely re-inspire me. For me, Art Expo New York is one of those sacred spaces.

I've had the honor of covering this expo for years now, and every single time, it finds a new way to evolve. Just when I think I've seen it all, Art Expo opens another door—a new wave of talent, a bolder form of expression, or an artist who makes me stop in my tracks and feel something real. This year was no exception. From art installations that pushed physical and emotional boundaries to intimate pieces that whispered their messages in silence, the range of work was incredible. I saw raw emotion carved into sculpture, bold political commentary layered into abstract forms, and digital work that blended art with technology so seamlessly it felt like the future.

What continues to set this expo apart, year after year, is the energy. There's a real dialogue happening here—not just between artist and viewer, but among creators, collectors, dreamers, and storytellers. You don't just walk through aisles of art—you become part of something living.

As someone who's deeply immersed in the world of fashion, design, and behind-the-scenes creativity, I recognize that same pulse here. Art Expo New York isn't just about art—it's about vision. It's about the courage to show up and share your truth in color, texture, line, and form.

To those who've never attended: you need to go. And to those who return every year like I do—you know exactly what I'm talking about. There's nothing quite like it.

NEW YORK

ANNOUNCES 2025 SCHEDULE Of Programming

The Spotlight Program, Art Labs, Discoveries Collection, Meet the Artists and Live Demonstrations make up a four-day program for the 48th annual edition.

New York, NY - March 27th, 2025. Redwood Art Group, the nation's leader in exhibitions and event production, media, and marketing for the global art community, announces the schedule of programming for its highly anticipated four-day showcase, Artexpo New York 2025, taking place at Pier 36, located at 299 South Street in Manhattan, from Thursday, April 3 to Sunday, April 6. Advance tickets can now be purchased by visiting <https://redwoodartgroup.com/artexpo-new-york/>.

The annual fine art destination, now in its 48th year, will host more than 200 innovative exhibiting galleries, art publishers and dealers, and artists from around the globe across 70,000 square feet of convention space, showcasing original work of 1000+ artists that includes prints, paintings, drawings, sculptures, photography, ceramics, giclee, lithographs and glass works, among other contemporary and fine art. This year's program features an extensive series of daily activities for attendees, that includes the Spotlight Program, a focused look at several cutting-edge galleries and artists chosen by the Redwood Art Group selection committee; Art Labs, a series of outstanding projects by leading galleries, art institutions, and art collectives within the fair; Meet The Artists and Live Demonstrations, presenting an interactive experience—allowing attendees to get up-close-and-personal with the artists, and Discoveries Collection – selections of artwork chosen by the Artexpo New York curatorial team that make up a group of amazing discoveries throughout the fair.

"We're pleased to announce our new programming schedule for this year's Artexpo New York," says Eric Smith, President and CEO of Redwood Art Group. "This year's fair will see an attendance by some of the most prominent leaders in the industry, from established and emerging artists to fine art photographers, gallery collectives, art dealers, publishers and of course international collectors from around the world. We're also pleased to introduce our inaugural Redwood Art Prize Contest and Digital Photo Contest, that provides a unique opportunity for emerging and established talent to showcase their work at this year's fair."

Hosting more than 15,000 avid art enthusiasts, including 2,000+ trade representatives every year, Artexpo New York is the largest international gathering of qualified trade buyers—including gallery owners and managers, art dealers, interior designers, publishers, architects, corporate art buyers, and art and framing retailers. Attendees will have an opportunity to browse thousands of innovative new works of art and enjoy specific programming. Avid art enthusiasts and industry leaders will return to enjoy [SOLO], highlighting established and independent emerging artists. This year's Artexpo New York will also feature its annual lineup of programming within the Artexpo Pavilion and [SOLO] Pavilion. The Artexpo New York Discoveries Collection presents a selection of unique discoveries from this year's artists and exhibitors, selected by the Artexpo New York curatorial team as its favorite pieces of art throughout the fair—each one priced at $1,000 and $3,000 or less.

Two exciting new additions have been made to the fair's programming for 2025. The inaugural Redwood Art Prize Contest is a prestigious award celebrating artistic innovation and limitless creativity. With over $20,000 in prizes, this year's debut of "Boundless" as the theme invited artists to push the boundaries of their craft, exploring new ideas and inspirations. The Redwood Art Prize is an international award open to artists of all disciplines, celebrating creative excellence across diverse art forms. Winners receive global recognition through our media platforms, with their work showcased online to an audience of artists, collectors, and art enthusiasts worldwide. Redwoods Art Prize is designed as a dynamic platform designed to help artists connect, collaborate, and expand their reach. Through the Art Prize, winners and finalists gain access to a global network of buyers and collectors, institutional recognition, and valuable professional opportunities both nationally and internationally. The four winners will gain unparalleled exposure at Artexpo New York 2025, the world's original fine art fair, connecting them with a global audience of collectors, galleries, and industry leaders. This year's winners and their respective works are: Bret Neathery ("Blue Jean Eyes"), Gavin Hein ("Edge of Glory"), Linda Washburn Roberts ("Terraced Sunset") and Rhea Diehl ("Howling Under a Burning Sky").

With over $30,000 in prizes, the Artexpo New York 2025 Digital Photo Contest challenged photographers to capture the essence of creativity in an instant. Centered around the inaugural "Blink" theme, the contest invited artists to submit their most compelling images—those that reveal something extraordinary in a fleeting moment, a split-second, a flash of inspiration. The top entries will take center stage at Artexpo New York 2025, where attendees can view and vote for their favorites. Finalist photographs will be showcased on state-of-the-art digital displays, reaching a global audience at the world's original fine art fair. Following Artexpo New York, all votes will be tabulated, and winners will be announced in each of the seven categories: Landscape, Architecture, Travel, Nature, Street, Wildlife, and People. One Best of Show winner will also be announced. Fair attendees can vote for their favorite contest entrants using the QR Code at the Voting Kiosks located in the Artexpo New York Café.

The daily programming schedule may be subject to change.

Each year, thousands of art industry insiders flock to Artexpo New York in search of the art and the artists that will shape trends in studios and galleries worldwide. Over the past several years, Pier 36 has become a recognizable event space in Lower Manhattan, utilized for high-end shows and large-scale events. Artexpo New York celebrates its 48th year and kicks-off the Spring 2024 season of acclaimed art fairs in New York City.

Returning exhibitors confirmed for this year's Artexpo New York include: K-Art Projects USA, Miami, Florida; Sammour Fine Art, Gallery, Quebec, Canada; Agora Fine Art, New York City, NY; Mececrave Gallery, Paris, France; Perseus Gallery, New York City, New York; SAB Art Collection, Los Angeles, California; Van Leeuwen Art, Zurich, Switzerland; Progetto Picciocelli, Rome, Italy; ADDO Gallery, Suwanee, Georgia; Eka Peradze, Berlin, Germany; and Artavita / World Wide Art, Santa Barbara, CA, among many others.

The Opening Night VIP Preview for Artexpo New York begins on Thursday, April 3 from 5:00pm to 8:00pm. The fair continues for the public and trade on Friday, April 4 through Sunday, April 6, starting at 11:00 a.m. daily, with advance tickets priced at $30 for general admission. A multi-day advance purchase ticket that includes access to the Opening Night VIP Preview and all other fair days (Thursday, April 3 to Sunday, April 6) is priced at $50.
