FIVE MUST SEE ARTISTS AT ARTEXPO NEW YORK

The World's original contemporary and fine art fair at Pier 36 in Manhattan presents the 46th annual edition, March 30 – April 2

New York, NY – March 30th, 2023: The 46th annual edition of Artexpo New York takes place at Pier 36 at 299 South Street in Manhattan, from Thursday, March 30 to Sunday, April 2, commencing with the Opening Night VIP Preview today starting at 5:00 p.m. Each subsequent day of the fair opens to the public at 11:00am, starting on Friday, March 31st.

The annual fine art destination will host more than 200 innovative exhibiting galleries, art publishers, dealers, and artists from around the world, across 70,000 square feet of uninterrupted convention space. Artexpo New York showcases the original and progressive work of 1000+ artists that includes prints, paintings, drawings, sculptures, photography, ceramics, giclee, lithographs and glass works, among other contemporary and fine art.

Here are five must-see artists exhibiting at Artexpo New York this year.

Ukrainian artist, Yaryna Yuryk

Samir Sammoun of Sammoun Fine Art invites one of Ukraine's most prominent and acclaimed artists to this year's Artexpo New York. Lviv National Art Gallery has honored Yaryna Yuryk, who was the Associate Professor of the Department of Design and Fundamentals of Architecture at the National University Lvivska Politechnika, as well as an artist in her own right. Her watercolor works from the series "My Ukraine" and "Creation" have been presented at the Grand Palais National Museum in Paris, the Latin American Memorial in Sao Paulo, and during Art Week in Miami. However, the artist's first exhibition took place when she was 23 years-old, at the National Museum in Lviv. Yaryna Yuryk is the founder of the modern cordocentric worldview for watercolor painting in Ukraine, and her paintings are held in private collections across the world.

Alex Shabatinas

Represented by Artios Gallery in New York, Alex Shabatinas was born in the city of Kaunas, Lithuania. He has been living in New York City since 1999. Alex is internationally renowned and his oil-on-canvas works have been purchased by private collectors all around the world, including H.R.H. King Charles of England, former President of the United States Ronald Reagan, and the last General-Secretary of the U.S.S.R., Mikhail Gorbachev. The artist's works were presented on Sotheby's Internet Art Auction, where he sold fifty-one paintings. www.artiosgallery.com/alex-shabatinas

Cliff Lee

Austrian-born Cliff Lee came into prominence in 1993 when he was invited to contribute a piece of his work to the White House Collection of American Crafts. Two years later, his porcelain work was in the permanent collection of the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Renwick Gallery. Lee's "Prickly Melons" with imperial yellow glaze, took him 17 years to create and caught the eye of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, which acquired a pair for its permanent collection - a rare distinction for a living artist. www.cliffleporcelain.com

United Kids For Ukraine

United Kids For Ukraine is an international, self-funded charity organization supporting Ukrainian refugee children and teenagers, founded by two dedicated Ukrainian women, Masha Zolotova, and Katrina Bila. Originally founded in 2009 in Odessa, the charity supports more than 600 children, some of whom were evacuated to Austria after the current war in Ukraine began. The long-term vision is to develop a safe and creative platform that supports talented young Ukrainian artists all over the world, both online and offline through unitedkids.art. Additionally, the group of volunteers develops creative therapies for Ukrainian children in need, as well as a safe environment for Ukrainian women. <http://unitedkids.art/>

Michele Utley Voigt

Presented by K-Art Projects, Michele Utley Voigt is an internationally exhibited, award-winning artist. Known for her electric images of the human experience divulged from the female perspective. Her Domestic Situation Series, explores the systematic domestication of women, transcendentalism, and modernization of pragmatic feminism. These works gambol between the modern world of technology and the traditional world through oil painting applied using master's techniques. These large-scale paintings, NFTs, and digital presentations consider our modern caste system, aspirations for beauty, entrapment of desire, empowerment of luxury, and ultimate emancipation. www.mauvisual.com

Each year, thousands of art industry insiders flock to Artexpo New York in search of the art and the artists that will shape trends in galleries worldwide. Over the past several years, Pier 36 has become a recognizable event space in Lower Manhattan, utilized for high-end shows and large-scale events. Artexpo New York celebrates its 46th Anniversary and kicks-off the Spring 2023 season of acclaimed art fairs in New York City.

The Opening Night VIP Preview for Artexpo New York takes place on Thursday, March 30 from 5:00p.m. to 8:00p.m. The fair continues for the public and trade on Friday, March 31 through Sunday, April 2, with advance tickets priced at $30 for daily general admission. A multi-day advance purchase ticket that includes access from Thursday, March 30, to Sunday, April 2, is priced at $75.
