MIAMI DESIGN DISTRICT HAPPENINGS

The Design District will be bustling with visitors and creatives throughout the exciting week. While there will be endless amounts of events to choose from, below are two standout exhibitions that should be on your list. Miami Design District, @miamidesigndistrict

CRAIG ROBINS PERSONAL COLLECTION

Miami Design District founder Craig Robins will be displaying his private collection of contemporary art and design within the headquarters offices of DACRA. Highlights include work by Kenturah Davis, Sayre Gomez, Yesiyu Zhao, Urs Fisher, Jean Prouvé, Richard Tuttle and Marlene Dumas.

JEFFREY DEITCH PRESENTS SHATTERED GLASS

Shattered Glass, the acclaimed exhibition of new art by emerging artists of color, shown at Jeffrey Deitch Los Angeles last spring, will be presented in an expanded version at the Moore Building in the Miami Design District.

DESIGN MIAMI/

It goes without saying that Design Miami/ is an absolute must-visit throughout the action-packed week. Hosting its 17th edition, art and culture lovers will take in this year's theme of Human Kind, which highlights design-led visions for more equitable futures. Convention Center Drive & 19th Street, Miami Beach, @designmiami

SPECTRUM MIAMI / RED DOT MIAMI

Two of the city's longest-running shows, Spectrum Miami and Red Dot Miami, will return under one roof at MANA Wynwood Convention Center Dec. 1 to 5. Spectrum Miami will showcase the works of more than 200 existing galleries and artists from all over the globe as well as locally. In addition, there will be a fine art experience with music and entertainment. Red Dot Miami serves as a contemporary, gallery-only fair, presenting [REVEAL] as its curatorial theme for 2021. Showcasing 65 galleries representing over 500 premier contemporary global artists, the theme prompts the creators to use art to investigate the world around them as well as themselves. 318 NW 23rd St., Miami, @spectrumartfairs, @reddotmiami

BAL HARBOUR SHOPS

Bal Harbour Shops takes guests through a whimsical journey as it welcomes three innovative installations to the iconic shopping oasis. From the Sonic Sculpture by Oswalds Mill Audio featuring the world's most impressive sound production to a custom sculpture crafted with over 600 Vanda orchids by floral artist Sandra de Ovando, the lineup is topped off with a display of original fashion illustrations by New York cover artist Reyna Noriega. 9700 Collins Ave., Bal Harbour, @balharbourshops

AMERICAN EXPRESS PLATINUM STUDIO

Returning to the beautiful beach of The Miami Beach EDITION, American Express will host Platinum Studio, a stunningly curated beachfront paradise in partnership with the hotel. Featuring various programming for Platinum Membership guests, activations will include an exhibit featuring the works of emerging artists with leading global online art marketplace Artsy as well as a dining experience with a global dining access partner, wellness classes with Equinox, plus so much more. Dec. 1-4, 2901 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, @americanexpress, @miamibeachedition

CONFIDANTE MIAMI BEACH

As the Confidante Miami Beach's ongoing partnership with the Museum of Graffiti redefines the scope of gallerylike experiences, the oceanfront hotel prepares to offer a full-bodied Art Week roundup. Featuring an exclusive pop-up by streetwear brand Sprayground and an invite-only launch party by Eat Me Guilt Free, the hotel welcomes BABE Rosé to present female group Few and Far Women as they create a custom-made skate ramp in the hotel's backyard with an all-female panel discussion moderated by YesJulz. 4041 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, @theconfidante

WYNWOOD WALLS

Presenting a prestigious roster of both up-and-coming and established artists, Wynwood Walls takes on the theme of Agents of Change while debuting 13 new installations for Art Week. Featuring a globally recognized lineup of artists such as AIKO, David Flores, Mantra and Ernesto Maranje, the famed epicenter for art doubles down with two shows including a collaborative solo exhibition by Brooklyn-based artists FAILE. 266 NW 26th St., Miami, @wynwoodwallsofficial ■
