Art San Diego

November 3-5

San Diego Convention Center

Art San Diego, the region's longest running art fair, returns for a 15th year. Notable event highlights include an exciting exhibition of The Lennon Art Collection, featuring more than 50 originals, lithographs, and prints by the legendary musician John Lennon available for sale, as well as an immersive, colorful room filled with artworks created by students at Monarch School, and opportunities to view, engage with, and purchase works by international, national, and local artists. redwoodartgroup.com

Over/Under: Woven Craft at Mingei

November 4-March 10, 2024

Mingei International Museum

Woven crafts have been part of the human experience since our earliest beginnings and continue to be made around the world as objects of use and as works of art to be contemplated for their beauty and technical mastery. Over/Under: Woven Craft at Mingei brings together more than 75 works including textiles, basketry, garments, hats, toys, and jewelry from the museum's permanent collection. Among the objects featured are Filipino giant fish traps, a meticulously crafted Japanese silkworm basket, traditional woven rain boots, and Egyptian pictorial textiles. Highlighting the local art community, the exhibition also features the works of Kumeyaay artist Eva Salazar and San Diego-based weaver Sarah Winston. mingei.org

Radenko Milak: Angel of History

November 4-January 4, 2024

Madison Gallery

In his inaugural solo exhibition in California, Madison Gallery welcomes Bosnian artist Radenko Milak, who combines the photographic image with the painterly narrative. Like a chronicler of the present, he addresses major contemporary issues and identifies historical connections. In his paintings and animated films, mostly watercolors with black pigment, Milak analyzes the role of contemporary image production in the formation of our historical and cultural memory. On November 11, from 6-8pm, an opening reception will take place with Milak in attendance. 858.523.9155, madisongalleries.com

Defending Liberty

November 6-7

North Coast Repertory Theatre

Randy Otto as Winston Churchill returns to caution humanity about a new threat, not from Nazis or Communism, but from a "Digital Iron Curtain" shrouding liberty. In this captivating presentation, Churchill's message emphasizes the ongoing battle between totalitarian control and personal freedom, urging action to safeguard liberty in the 21st Century. Following the performance, there will be an "Ask Winston" Q&A. northcoastrep.org

Babbitt

November 7-December 3

La Jolla Playhouse

George F. Babbitt is a middle-aged real estate broker in the Midwestern city of Zenith. By day, he has a prosperous, respectable middle-class existence. By night, he's plagued by the thought that he has amounted to nothing. Searching for more to life than his top-of-the-line toaster and hickory golf club, Babbitt leaps with abandon into the most spectacular rebellion of his life — one that could end up costing him everything. Multi-award-winning star of stage and screen Matthew Broderick and Tony Award-winning playwright Joe DiPietro (Diana, Memphis) join forces with The Rich Family Artistic Director Christopher Ashley for this comedic, unmissable theatrical event. lajollaplayhouse.org

Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas!

November 8-December 31

The Old Globe Theatre

The whimsical favorite based upon the classic Dr. Seuss book is back for its 26th incredible year. The beloved production features the songs "Santa for a Day," "You're a Mean One, Mr. Grinch," and "Welcome, Christmas (Fah Who Doraze)," the delightful carol from the popular animated version of How the Grinch Stole Christmas! Celebrate the holidays as the Donald and Darlene Shiley Stage in the Old Globe Theatre, part of the Globe's Conrad Prebys Theatre Center, is once again transformed into the snow-covered Who-ville, right down to the last can of Who-hash. theoldglobe.org

American Railroad

November 10 | Balboa Theatre

As a social-impact organization and home to a Grammy Award-winning musical ensemble, Silkroad works to inspire collaboration in innovative ways that add more equity and justice into the world through the arts. Silkroad's newest initiative, American Railroad, illuminates the impact of African American, Chinese, Indigenous, Irish, and other immigrant communities on the creation of the U.S. Transcontinental Railroad and connecting railways in North America. Led by artistic director Rhiannon Giddens, each stop on the tour will contextualize — or rather re-contextualize — the railroad through music. These cultural intersections reveal a thread of commonality despite their varied origins, and remind us of the intricately rich American story. American Railroad's stop in San Diego is presented by La Jolla Music Society. theconrad.org

Tuesdays with Morrie

November 10-19 | Trinity Theatre

A play based on the bestselling memoir of the same name by Mitch Albom, Tuesdays with Morrie chronicles Albom's rekindled relationship with his college professor and mentor, Morrie, with whom Albom reconnects after learning the professor is battling Lou Gehrig's Disease. Their weekly visits become Morrie's final and greatest lesson to teach: how to live. This will be the first Grown Up Stage (GUS) performance that Trinity Theatre Company will perform at their new Mission Valley location in the Mission Valley Mall. trinityttc.org
