

RICARDO SANABRIA

EcaldoArt is an illustrator with more than 20 years of experience in his native Venezuela. He has been awarded recognitions such as Pedro Leon Zapata to the best caricaturist 2015. He has illustrated for advertising agencies, editorials, children's stories, different media, as well as many personal works. His style encompasses various forms and techniques. From drawing comics, political caricatures; To conventional ink or acrylic portraits. Today, this tireless artist is entering the world of Fine Art with mixed media. Currently, his series "Greatness" encompasses an immense amount of characters from the world of the arts, cinema, pop culture, sports, that have marked and influenced him throughout his life. Using a Wacom tablet, his stroke develops movement, then adding different textures of watercolors, prints in Giclee technique on German cotton paper or canvas, then after printed, intervenes with acrylics, watercolors, graphite; To enhance the work. Their works are limited editions that count on series of only ten print by each work.

 @ECALDOART  @RICARDOSANABRIA  ECALDOART@GMAIL.COM