Briana Fitzpatrick (Spectrum Miami, Booth 1506)

Briana Fitzpatrick is a multidisciplinary artist utilizing the integration of various art disciplines such as dance, gymnastics, martial arts, head and hand balancing and contortion to create strikingly unique and innovative paintings. Influenced by her professional dance career and her training in gymnastics, archery, and other art forms, Briana Fitzpatrick has developed a signature artistic identity and expression to develop a growing collection of acrylic and oil on canvas. www.brianafitzpatrick.com/collections/coalesce-collection

Natalia Fedner (Red Dot Miami, Booth 318)

Natalia Fedner is a couture designer based in Los Angeles. She was born in Ukraine and immigrated to Columbus, Ohio as a child. She moved to New York and later Paris to attend Parsons School of Design and study the techniques of haute couture. During her studies and after graduating, Natalia worked for Calvin Klein Collection, Donna Karan Collection and Marc Jacobs. Natalia is well known for creating cutting-edge designs and jewelry for celebrities including Beyoncé, Jennifer Lopez, Cher, Janet Jackson, Charlize Theron, Alicia Keys, Lenny Kravitz, Cardi B, Megan Thee Stallion, Shakira, Kim Kardashian, Kendall Jenner, Kylie Jenner, Kourtney Kardashian, Kristen Stewart and Sharon Stone, among others. Juan Pablo Zapata (Spectrum Miami, Booth 1606)

Juan Pablo Zapata is a Miami-based artist who works with a fluid, instinctive approach of human emotions through movement, color and form. Born in Colombia in the small town of “El Carmen de Atrato – Chocó, Juan Pablo moved to America at age 23, and while creating art, worked in the luxury watch industry before leaving his job to commit to his craft. His delicate acrylic on canvas works are inspired by Dali, Rubens, Kandinsky, as well as Caravaggio. Art Business News

John Arena (Red Dot Miami, Artblend Booth 601-602)

During the pandemic, many people discovered new interests and hobbies but California based John Arena discovered he had a very unique talent. He makes mosaics of iconic rock stars out of hundreds, sometimes thousands of guitar picks. Soon he started getting attention from galleries in Miami and NYC and his pieces were selling for thousands of dollars, with growing attention from the musicians themselves. John's art piece of Alice Cooper was auctioned for $120,000 at the rocker's annual Christmas Pudding fundraiser. <https://guitarpickartist.com/>

Andrea Croteau (Red Dot Miami, K-Art Projects Booth 200)

Andre Croteau creates "luxury friezes" - textile-infused, resin-based canvases that evoke a glossy, shiny sense of life, energy and well-being for those that experience them. Initially looking for a contemporary sensibility, within which to capture his love for the brilliance of stained glass, Croteau has coined an opulent and organic style that's infused with an amalgam of color, shine, movement and depth. Croteau received his formal training at New York's renowned Fashion Institute of Technology and remained in New York for the majority of his fashion career, creating for such luxury houses as Saks Fifth Avenue, Piero Dimitri Couture, Paul Stuart and Alexander Julian, before relocating to Miami. <https://www.andrepaulcroteau.com/>
